The Ninth Symphony in D minor op. 125 by Ludwig van Beethoven will be performed in the Lower Engadine in the anniversary year "500 years of the Free State of Graubünden". The concert performances will take place from 13 to 16 June 2024 in the Gurlaina ice rink in Scuol. This major project will be realised together with the Golden Gate Symphony Orchestra from San Francisco, under the direction of Urs Leonhard Steiner from Graubünden, and numerous musicians and singers from all language regions of Graubünden.

Building bridges across continents

There will also be musical support from the Hochalpine Institut Ftan and around 30 young musicians from Dulwich College International from various cities in Asia who are taking part in the project. Many children from the Lower Engadine and Val Müstair will also be taking part. In total, around 150 musicians from Graubünden, San Francisco (USA) and Asia will perform together on stage.
